

IT WAS A DARK AND STORMY NIGHT...

(Johnny's story)

It was a dark and stormy night. Johnny was combing his enormous moustache before dinner with his mum, when, suddenly he heard a strong noise out of the house, and when he heard a strong noise he started running to where his mother was because he was very scared. Johnny and his mother saw that their dog was in the street and it was transforming into a wolf. His brother-in-law, who was at home because he had gone to polish Johnny's nails, began to shout. He was nervous. Johnny went outside to look for his beloved dog. But, suddenly, he saw a car approaching in the rain. Two people left the car, one dressed as a joker and another one was a very small person with a knife.

In an instant, a third man who Johnny didn't see put a sack in his head and the rest of the men caught him. He felt absolutely terrified and thought; what is happening here?

By surprise, he lost consciousness while listened in the background the three man laughing and talking things that he couldn't understand...

All of a sudden, they heard a strong thunder sound, the three man were scared and the beloved dog-wolf appeared to save Johnny, the dog-wolf began to bark in the dark night, as in a horror film that Johnny was afraid of... and his fears came true, Johnny, who until then had been a man in his 40s, tall, ugly, strong, with a mustache, with long hair, and who liked to be dressed in narrow yellow trousers, white shirt, and red painted nails, thought he needed to turn his life around.

He could only hear terrifying noises and shouts coming from the three evil men, and for once in his life, he praid God to be safe and go out of that hell. While he was praying, he saw his wolf dog coming out of a hole and rescued him.

Johnny proposed to himself to find out what was happening. He injected his dog's blood and called his great-grandfather to ask about wolfmen. Johnny, with the help of his great grandfather, performed a blood test on his dog and discovered that his dog was actually his brother. Johnny was anxious and nervous because he should ask his mother about the results of the blood test. Johnny's mother told him that the results of the blood test were true and that she was actually a witch. Suddenly, Johnny heard a thunder and his mother disappeared in the darkness.
